

Your Local Clinical Partner

We do more than just fill prescriptions.

We know facilities today need a partner who can help them stay ahead of risks and opportunities. That's why we back our pharmacy capabilities with field clinical consulting services to help clients improve the quality of care and their operations for optimal outcomes and revenues.

PharMerica's specially trained 325+ clinical consultants in the community provide an added layer of safety to facilities, delivering expert, hands-on advice in the field through:

- Medication regimen reviews to ensure appropriate therapy, reduce errors and minimize polypharmacy
- Staff education to advance knowledge and reduce risk
- Field support for state requirements and regulations
- Survey audit, preparation and support to lower your chance of F-Tags
